

January 12, 2022

Charles Grassley
U.S. Senator
135 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510
Sent via E-mail

Dear Senator Charles Grassley:

On behalf of Kohn, Kohn, and Colapinto, LLP, National Whistleblower Center, and Whistleblower Network News, we thank you for sponsoring the Anti-Money Laundering Whistleblower Improvement Act.

No Senator has fought on behalf of whistleblowers and increasing government oversight as steadfastly as yourself. This bipartisan success will be felt for years to come.

Thanks to your efforts in securing the AML whistleblower provision, the government will save money while attacking global corruption at its roots. This bill will give law enforcement the tools it needs to go after the illegally sourced money of Russian oligarchs and despots around the world.

Thank you, once again, for your commitment to whistleblowers. This was a monumental step forward for whistleblower protections and global anti-corruption efforts. We celebrate your leadership in advancing this critically important bill.

Sincerely,

Stephen Kohn
Founding Partner
Kohn, Kohn and Colapinto, LLP

Siri Nelson
Executive Director
National Whistleblower Center

Mary Jane Wilmoth
Publisher
Whistleblower Network News

January 12, 2022

Joseph R. Biden
President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, DC 20500
Sent via E-mail

Dear President Joseph R. Biden:

On behalf of Kohn, Kohn, and Colapinto, LLP, National Whistleblower Center, and Whistleblower Network News, we thank you for signing the landmark Anti-Money Laundering Whistleblower Improvement Act into law as part of the Consolidated Appropriations Act.

Your leadership and recognition of the importance of fighting corruption on the global scale has led to this immense bipartisan victory.

The AML whistleblower provision will equip your law enforcement agencies with the tools necessary to tackle corruption at its very roots. Russian oligarchs and wealthy despots from around the world who attempt to launder their illegally earned money will be caught and held accountable. It could not come at a more important time, as Russia wages its war in Ukraine.

The importance of this law will reverberate for years to come through the whistleblowers it protects, and the criminals they help bring to justice.

Thank you, once again, for your leadership and your commitment to whistleblowers. This was a monumental step forward for whistleblower protections and anti-corruption efforts worldwide. We celebrate your advancing this critically important bill.

Sincerely,

Stephen Kohn
Founding Partner
Kohn, Kohn and Colapinto, LLP

Siri Nelson
Executive Director
National Whistleblower Center

Mary Jane Wilmoth
Publisher
Whistleblower Network News

January 12, 2022

Alma S. Adams, Ph.D.
U.S. House Representative
2436 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515
Sent via Email

Dear Congresswoman Alma S. Adams, Ph.D.:

On behalf of Kohn, Kohn, and Colapinto, LLP, National Whistleblower Center, and Whistleblower Network News, we thank you for your sponsorship of the Anti-Money Laundering Whistleblower Improvement Act and your tireless efforts in its successful inclusion into the Consolidated Appropriations Act.

Without your championing of the AML whistleblower program, it is hard to imagine how this crucial piece of legislation could have become law. At every step of the way you and your staff offered invaluable help and showed tremendous expertise.

The anti-corruption measures in this bill will support efforts to safeguard democracy and create equality around the world. Those who try to evade taxes and hide illegally earned money will finally be forced to pay their fair share.

Thank you, once again, for your public service and your commitment to whistleblowers. This was a monumental step forward for whistleblower protections and anti-corruption efforts worldwide. We celebrate your leadership in advancing this critically important bill.

Sincerely,

Stephen Kohn
Founding Partner
Kohn, Kohn and Colapinto, LLP

Siri Nelson
Executive Director
National Whistleblower Center

Mary Jane Wilmoth
Publisher
Whistleblower Network News

January 12, 2022

Rosa DeLauro
U.S. House Representative
2413 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515
Sent via E-mail

Dear Congresswoman Rosa DeLauro:

On behalf of Kohn, Kohn, and Colapinto, LLP, National Whistleblower Center, and Whistleblower Network News, we thank you for crucial efforts in the passage of the Anti-Money Laundering Whistleblower Improvement Act.

We know that as Chair of the House Appropriations Committee, you have to make hard choices in finalizing a budget. Your leadership in bringing this bipartisan legislation across the finish line has been noticed and celebrated by the whistleblower community.

Thanks to your work, the anti-corruption measures in this bill will support efforts to safeguard democracy and create equality around the world. Those who try to evade taxes and hide illegally earned money will finally be forced to pay their fair share.

Thank you, once again, for your commitment to whistleblowers. This was a monumental step forward for whistleblower protections and anti-corruption efforts worldwide. We commend your leadership in advancing this critically important bill.

Sincerely,

Stephen Kohn
Founding Partner
Kohn, Kohn and Colapinto, LLP

Siri Nelson
Executive Director
National Whistleblower Center

Mary Jane Wilmoth
Publisher
Whistleblower Network News

January 12, 2022

Anthony Gonzalez
U.S. House Representative
2458 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515
Sent via E-mail

Dear Congressman Anthony Gonzalez:

On behalf of Kohn, Kohn, and Colapinto, LLP, National Whistleblower Center, and Whistleblower Network News, we thank you for sponsoring the Anti-Money Laundering Whistleblower Improvement Act.

Your bipartisan leadership helped pave the way for this crucial piece of legislation that will improve national security while saving the government money. The impact of this bill will be felt for years to come.

With its passage, Russian oligarchs and despots around the world who launder money with impunity will finally be held accountable. The whistleblower provisions in this bill will equip United States' law enforcement with the tools to attract informants and effectively root out global corruption.

Thank you, once again, for your sponsorship and your commitment to whistleblowers. This was a monumental step forward for whistleblower protections and anti-corruption efforts worldwide. We celebrate your leadership in advancing this critically important bill.

Sincerely,

Stephen Kohn
Founding Partner
Kohn, Kohn and Colapinto, LLP

Siri Nelson
Executive Director
National Whistleblower Center

Mary Jane Wilmoth
Publisher
Whistleblower Network News

January 12, 2022

Raphael Warnock
U.S. Senator
388 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510
Sent via E-mail

Dear Senator Raphael Warnock:

On behalf of Kohn, Kohn, and Colapinto, LLP, National Whistleblower Center, and Whistleblower Network News, we thank you for your work ushering the Anti-Money Laundering Whistleblower Improvement Act into law.

Without your leadership and unique ability to bring Democrats and Republicans together, we do not believe that the AML bill could have passed.

With its passage, Russian oligarchs and despots around the world who launder money with impunity will finally be held accountable. The whistleblower provisions in this bill will equip United States' law enforcement with the tools to attract informants and effectively root out global corruption.

Thank you, once again, for your immense efforts and your commitment to whistleblowers. This was a monumental step forward for whistleblower protections and anti-corruption efforts worldwide. We celebrate your leadership in advancing this critically important bill.

Sincerely,

Stephen Kohn
Founding Partner
Kohn, Kohn and Colapinto, LLP

Siri Nelson
Executive Director
National Whistleblower Center

Mary Jane Wilmoth
Publisher
Whistleblower Network News